Ref :- Your Letter No. 14021/8/2023-UGMEB dtd. 01/08/2023

Respected Madam,

In context to subject cited above, it is submitted herewith that National Medical Commission, (UGMEB), New Delhi vide letter referred above, has published the "Competency Based Medical Education Curriculum" (CBME) Regulations, 2023. On perusal of aforesaid Regulations, University seeks guidance on following points;

1) "Competency Based Medical Education Curriculum" (CBME) Regulations, 2023 is published on 01/08/2023. Therefore, it is anticipated that said Regulation is applicable with effect from the 3rd batch of students admitted to 1st year MBBS Program in academic year 2023-24 and onwards, and not to the older batches of the students. Your confirmation in this matter is solicited.

2) Further, you are requested to illuminate whether Grace Marks are applicable for older batch of MBBS students (i.e. 2019, 2020, 2021 & 2022) or for only those admitted in academic year 2023-24 and onwards.

3) You are further requested to guide; whether the Internal Assessment shall be considered as separate head of passing for University Examination or not.

4) The Supplementary Examination is applicable for all years (i.e. 1st to final year MBBS) or only for 1st year MBBS.

5) The students admitted in 2019 batch are pursuing their final MBBS, and students admitted in 2020 Batch are pursuing their Third (I) MBBS and 2021 Batch are pursuing their second MBBS. You are requested to enlighten on following points;

- a) Will the Phase wise duration of 12 months and 18 months be applicable to these batches?
- b) Is the clinical posting schedule provided in CBME Regulations, 2023 is applicable to these batches?
- c) Will the internal assignment scheme provided in the CBME Regulation be applicable to these batches?
- d) Will the passing criteria of 50 % aggregate in theory and practical in University exam and 40:60/60:40 scheme and 40% in theory (both papers together) be applicable to these batches?
- e) Will the appointment of examiners (Medical post graduate degree after MBBS) as per criteria mention in CBME Regulation 2023 be applicable to these batches?
- f) Will the Competency distribution of AETCOM Module for training and assignment mentioned in the Annexure be applicable to these batches? Or only for those admitted in year 2023-24 and onwards.

Your guidance on aforesaid points is solicited. You are therefore requested to forward replies at the earliest.

- The academic calendar year of every batch published from time to time is to be followed for CBME curriculum accordingly.
  - 2) Further, you are requested to illuminate whether Grace Marks are applicable for older batch of MBBS students (i.e. 2019,2020, 2021 & 2022) or for only those admitted in academic year 2023-24 and onwards.
  - 3) You are further requested to guide whether the Internal Assessment shall be considered as separate head of passing for University Examination or not.
- No Grace Marks will be given to any student appearing in any examination conducted after the publication of these regulations and MSR-2023 guidelines published on 16 Aug, 2023.
- Internal Assessment will not be counted as separate head of passing for University Examination. However, the student has to be declared as eligible to appear for the University Examination based on the Internal Assessment made by the college authorities (formative and summative).

4. The supplementary Examination is applicable for all years (i.e. 1st to final year MBBS) or only for 1st year MBBS.
- Supplementary Examination is applicable for all years.
    - 5) The students admitted in 2019 batch are pursuing their final MBBS, and students admitted in 2020 Batch are pursuing their Third (I) MBBS and 2021 Batch are pursuing their second MBBS.
      - a) Will the Phase-wise duration of 12 months and 18 months be applicable to these batches.
  - Phase-wise duration will be followed as per the academic calendar of respective batches.
    - b) is the clinical posting schedule provided in CBME Regulations, 2023 is applicable to these batches.
  - Clinical posting schedule shall be followed as given for each batch.
    - c) Will the internal assignment scheme provided in the CBME Regulations, 2023 is applicable to these batches.
  - Internal assignment scheme may be made applicable from 2023-'24 batch.
    - d) Will the passing criteria of 50% aggregate in theory and practical in University exam and 40:60/ 60:40 scheme and 40% in theory (both papers together) be applicable to these batches.
  - Passing criteria of 50% aggregate in theory and practical, (and minimum 40% in each, to achieve aggregate 50 %) , shall be applicable from the date of publication of the regulations and guidelines.
    - e) Will the appointment of examiners (Medical post graduate degree after MBBS) as per criteria mentioned in CBME Regulations 2023 be applicable to these batches.
  - Appointment of examiners as per the criteria mentioned in CBME Regulations 2023 shall be applicable to all batches who go for examination after the publication of these guidelines and regulations.
    - f) Will the distribution of AETCOM Module for training and assignment mentioned in the Annexure be applicable to these batches those admitted in the 2023-24 and onwards.

1/3641274/2024

- AETCOM Module for training and assignment mentioned in these Annexure shall be applicable to 2023 Batch onwards. The previous batches shall be following AETCOM Module designed for them.
