

Feedback report
Thesis protocol writing workshop

Medical Education Unit, UCMS and GTB Hospital, Delhi-95
1-4 Mar 2023

Table 1: Session wise post-workshop self perceived confidence scores given by the faculty (n=29) and postgraduate students (n=149)

Designation	How will you rate your confidence about framing research question and hypothesis after attending this workshop?	How will you rate your confidence in searching for literature in PubMed after attending this workshop?	How will you rate your confidence in writing Aim, Objectives and Outcome measures after attending this workshop?	How would you rate the ice-breaking session?	How will you rate your confidence in writing Introduction and Review of literature after attending this workshop?	How will you rate your confidence in writing Study design, Materials and Methods after attending this workshop?	How will you rate your confidence in setting a Study title after attending this workshop?	How will you rate your confidence in estimating a Sample size after attending this workshop?	How will you rate your confidence in fulfilling and stating the ethical considerations in your study after attending this workshop?	How will you rate your confidence in writing references after attending this workshop?
-------------	---	--	--	--	---	---	---	--	---	--

---

e

Postgraduate (first year)	5.00	5.00	5.00	5.00	5.00	5.00	5.00	5.00	5.00	5.00	5.00
---------------------------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------	------

---

List 1: The components which the faculty and the postgraduates liked about the workshop

1. Interactive
2. Discussions
3. Live demonstrations
4. Participant engagement
5. Punctuality
6. Systematic approach
7. Cleared doubts
8. Brunch
9. Relevant topics
10. Newer apps for research

One quote by a postgraduate student: "It oriented me on thesis protocol writing. It introduced me to new websites and apps that will help me down the line. It showed me what I was doing wrong so far in writing protocol."

List 2: The components which the faculty and postgraduate students mentioned to improve

1. Providing more resource materials
2. Can be conducted over two days rather than a single day
3. More time for Review of Literature session
4. Better sound quality and multimedia experience
5. Small and more frequent breaks
6. Better internet facilities