

Dr. Tejinder Singh, is NAMS Emeritus Professor of Medical Education, Emeritus Professor of Pediatrics, and Chair, Center for Health Professions Education, Adesh University, Bathinda. He has been the Founder Director, CMCL-FAIMER Regional Institute, Convener, Medical Council of India's Nodal Center for Faculty Development, National Convener of Advance Course in Medical Education for Medical Council of India, Program in Charge of PG Diploma in Mother and Child Health (IGNOU), Co-ordinator of Medical Education Cell, Vice Principal, Dean, and Acting Principal, at Christian Medical College, Ludhiana, India. Recipient of many Orations and Fellowships, he has also been designated as Advisor to IAP Education Center and Indian College of Pediatrics.

He has been recipient of many Awards, Prizes and Scholarships including Dr. B C Roy National Award for Eminent Medical Teacher, National Board of Examinations award for Excellence in Medical Education, Maj. Gen. Amir Chand Memorial Award for Family Medicine, IMA Medical Education and Research Award for Young Graduates, and MEU Lifetime Achievement Award. He has been awarded 7 orations, including those by IAP and NAMS. He has received extensive training in the field of Medical Education, Student assessment, Distance Education, Training & Development and Human Resource Management. He has been associated with Foundation for Advancement of International Medical Education and Research (FAIMER), Philadelphia, USA, as a Fellow, Global Faculty Advisor and International faculty.

Dr Tejinder Singh has over 315 publications in National and International journals to his credit. He has contributed over 75 chapters in books and is the author/editor of 6 Books.

He has been involved with faculty development on Teacher Training, Competency-based education, Distance Education, Assessment for learning and Student Support at various local, national, and international conferences.